DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1-32, in the reply filed on 04/03/2006 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-3, 5 and 11-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 5,338,117 to Kucksdorf et al. See Figs. 22-23.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 8-10, 18, 19, 21, 24-28, 31 and 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kucksdorf et al.

Kucksdorf et al. discloses the claimed device except it is unclear if the bag contains loose material. In the description of the prior art, Kucksdorf et al. discloses that it is known in the art to provide loose materials "such as per food, coffee, or similar granular products" within square-bottom bags. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the bag of Kucksdorf et al. with the loose materials of the prior art bags, since one of the objects of the Kucksdorf et al. invention is to provide a bag having handle means usable for carrying and/or dispensing contents.

Regarding claims 9, 24 and 32, Kucksdorf et al. discloses the claimed invention, as discussed above, except for the contents of the bag being salt. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to contain salt within the Kucksdorf et al. bag, since applicant has not disclosed that salt within a bag solves any stated problem or is for any particular purpose and it appears that the Kucksdorf et al. invention would perform equally well with salt contained therein.

6. Claims 4 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kucksdorf et al. and U.S. Patent No. 5,593,229 to Warr.

Kucksdorf et al. discloses the claimed device, as discussed above, except for the first handle having a patch and a cut extending through the patch. Warr discloses that it is known in the art to provide a patch with cut on the handle of an analogous bag. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the first handle of Kucksdorf et al. with the patch having a cut of Warr, in order to reinforce the handle.

7. Claims 15-17, 29 and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kucksdorf et al. and Warr.

Kucksdorf et al. discloses the claimed device, as discussed above, except for the first end having a tear seam. Warr discloses that it is known in the art to provide a tear seam at a first end of an analogous bag. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the first end of the Kucksdorf et al. bag with the tear seam of Warr, in order to facilitate opening the bag and to form a pour spout for dispensing contents.

Regarding claims 16, 17 and 30, Kucksdorf et al. and Warr discloses the claimed invention except for a second tear seam at the second end of the bag. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide a second tear seam at the second end of Kucksdorf et al., since it has been held that mere duplication of the essential working parts of a device involves only routine skill in the art.

8. Claims 6, 7, 22 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kucksdorf et al. and U.S. Patent No. 6,923,574 to Siegel.

Kucksdorf et al discloses the claimed device except for the second handle including a rigid, injection-molded plastic handle. Siegel discloses that it is known in the art to provide a rigid, injection-molded plastic handle on an analogous handle. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the second handle of Kucksdorf et al. with the rigid, injection-molded plastic handle of Siegel, in order to reinforce the handle.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

10. Applicant is duly reminded that a complete response must satisfy the requirements of 37 C.F. R. 1.111, including: "The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references. A general allegation that the claims "define a patentable invention" without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section. Moreover, "The prompt development of a clear Issue requires that the replies of the applicant meet the objections to and rejections of the claims." Applicant should also specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See MPEP 2163.06 II(A), MPEP 2163.06 and MPEP 714.02. The "disclosure" includes the claims, the specification and the drawings.
